Bodcaw School Board Invites in Three Others

The Boards and patrons of the Cale, Laneburg, and Willisville school districts are invited to attend a meeting at Bodcaw School Thursday night, February 27th, at 7:30 o'clock.

Last July the Bodcaw Board requested the State Department of Education to make a complete study of the district. Commissioner Arch Ford, Bill Locke, Supervisor of Instruction, and other Department staff members will be present at the meeting to discuss the findings in the first of the two phases of the study.

Bodcaw patrons are aware that the offerings in the school are not sufficient to provide the students the variety of subjects and educational background that is necessary if the students are to compete successfully with students from the better schools in this space age. This awareness is evidenced by the fact that less than twenty-five of those who held poll taxes at the time a petition was circulated to reorganize have not signed the petition. Only six qualified voters refused to sign the petition and the petition was not presented to the other few as it would have been useless at that time.

The Bodcaw Board and patrons will discuss plans for the 1964-65 school year. If sufficient interest is not shown by the boards and patrons of the other districts in the southern two-thirds of Nevada County to take immediate steps toward a common solution of the problem of providing a defensible educational program for all the students of the area, the Bodcaw group will feel free to work toward a plan that would provide the maximum educational benefits for students residing in the Bodcaw district.

In adopting the resolution setting up this meeting, the Bodcaw Board was mindful of the possibility that all the southern districts could support one district and provide an acceptable school plant and instructional program that could soon meet the rigid requirements of North Central Association accreditation. To do this, it would require all four districts. If one district should go elsewhere, there would not remain enough students or financial structure to make a unit that could meet the increasing educational demands of today.

U. S. Water Fouls Are Endangered

WASHINGTON (AP) — North America's waterfowl resources are endangered on many fronts, the Senate Commerce Committee was told today.

Sen. Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., spoke in support of a bill, of which he is the author, to speed the wetlands preservation program.

He said ducks and geese are endangered by drought and draining and destroying wetlands needed for nesting, resting and feeding.

Metcalf's bill would assure counties, in which land is acquired under the wetlands program, of annual payments comparable to receipts from taxes had the lands continued in private ownership.

This year, Metcalf said, 203 counties in the nation received $588,000 in shared revenues from land in the wetlands program. His proposal would increase the total to $735,000 and provide that the compensation would be adjusted to represent current land values at 5-year intervals.

Metcalf said that from the "potholes" of the Dakotas and Western Minnesota come 80 percent of the young ducks reared in the contiguous 48 states.

He said preservation of loss of these wetlands will have an important effect on the success of waterfowl nesting.

He said the federal government planned to buy or lease 2.1 million acres of potholes for waterfowl nesting purposes.

Doesn't Like Shopping Centers

LITTLETON, Colo. (AP) — Lewis McClung walked along a shopping center wall Thursday throwing a soft drink bottle through each of the 10 plate-glass windows.

McClung, 46, was still there when sheriff's officers arrested him on a charge of malicious mischief.

"He said he doesn't like shopping centers," one officer said.

Estranged Life May Testify

By GAVIN SCOTT

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — An ex-convict from Detroit testified today he was promised a presidential pardon to work as a government undercover agent against Teamsters President James R. Hoffa.

Frederick M. Shobe, testifying over angry government objections at Hoffa's jury-tampering trial, said he was employed by Walter Sheridan, special consultant to Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy, from May 1962 through January 1964. Shobe, a Negro, said he was not assigned to the present case until June 1963.

Asked if he was promised any compensation by the government, Shobe replied, "Mr. Sheridan had my FBI record. I was told he was working on a presidential pardon for me, but I later found out that a presidential pardon wouldn't do any good since my convictions were on state offenses."

Shobe said he had served prison sentences for armed robbery, burglary and forgery and was on parole at the time he said Sheridan hired him.

Walker testified against Thomas E. Parks of Nashville. Parks is one of five men on trial with Hoffa on charges of seeking to "influence" the union leader's 1962 conspiracy trial jury in Nashville.

The defense also has called the estranged wife of Edward G. Partin of Baton Rouge, La., the government's chief witness in the case.

"We insist she has no relevant testimony," said James F. Neal, chief prosecutor.

"I have talked with her and her testimony certainly is competent," insisted James Haggerty, attorney for Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union.

Partin, a Teamsters local official at Baton Rouge, linked Hoffa and most of his five co-defendants to alleged attempts to fix the jury in Hoffa's 1962 trial at Nashville on a conspiracy charge. He testified he enjoyed Hoffa's confidence during that trial but reported "almost daily" to the government on the labor leader's activities. The trial ended with a hung jury.

Hoffa's plans to testify in his own behalf today were postponed by the decision to call Mrs. Partin. His appearance now is set for Monday, start of the trial's sixth week. The other defendants testified this week. All denied they did anything wrong.

Building Doesn't Own All of Site

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Chancellor Guy E. Williams ruled Thursday that the corporation which built a $1.5 million medical office building at Little Rock doesn't own all the property at the site.

He said John E. Bush, 45, and his sister, Clothilde Bush, Negroes, own 3.42 acres at the northwest corner of it.

John E. Bush, I, grandfather of the Bushes, bought the land in 1905, but it was forfeited to the state when taxes on the land were not paid after 1927.

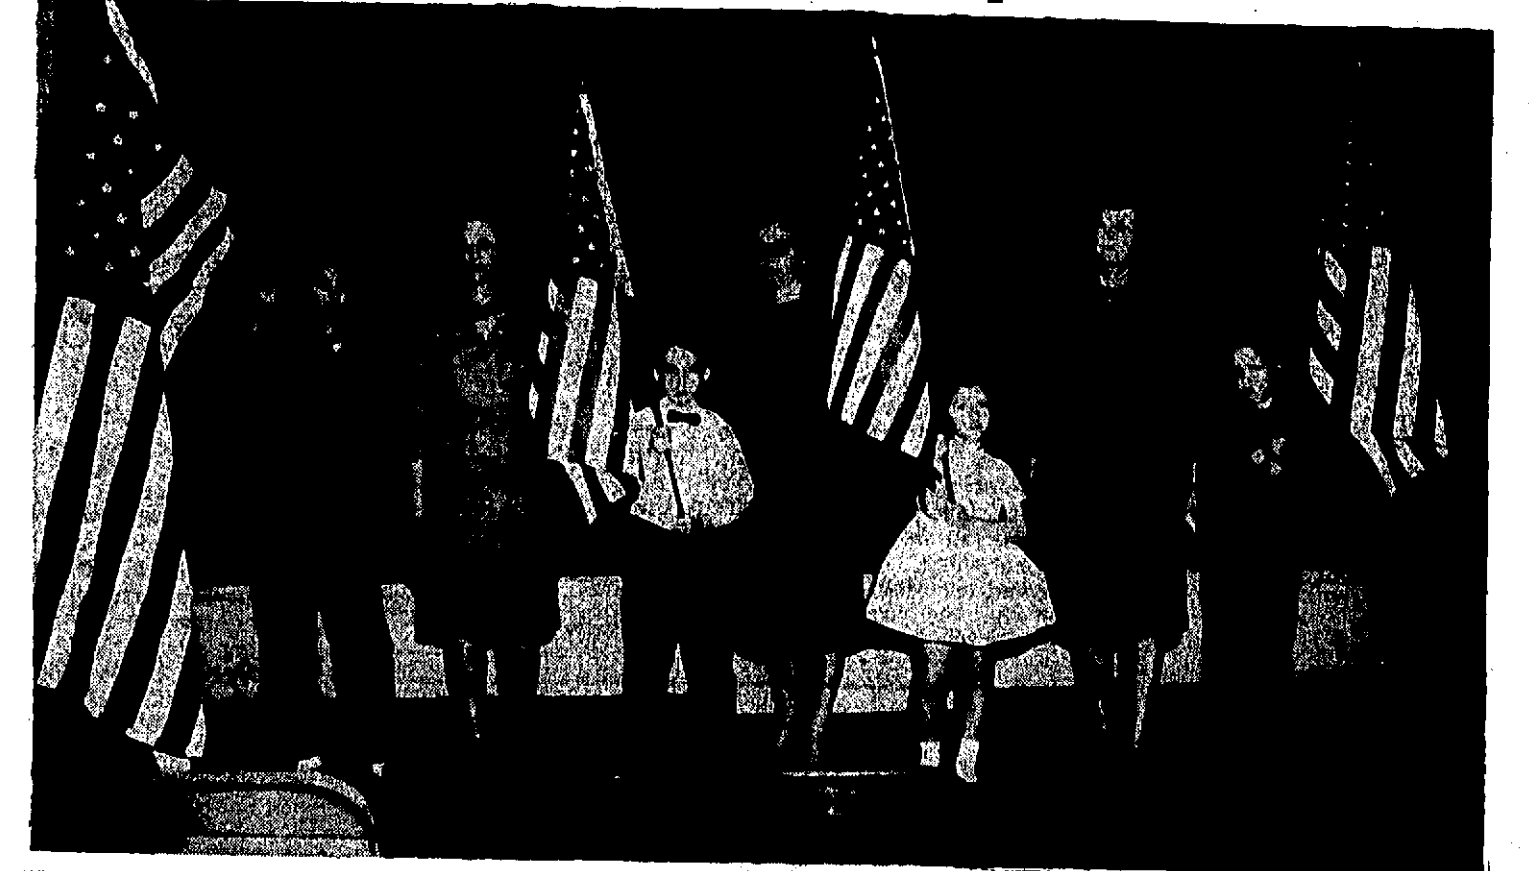

The brother and sister disputed their tax title on several grounds. Williams said he was satisfied that the tax sale was void and did not defeat the title of the plaintiffs.

A corporation formed by 40 physicians and two dentists paid $300,000 to Mrs. I. E. Neathery and Mrs. Elsie Neathery Pouzar for the 13 2-3 acres where the building is. It was constructed last year.

Father of Famed Orchestra Leader at One Time Served Local Methodist Church

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

Because of the historical significance of February, such as today's being George Washington's birthday, many observances this month are predicated by the word, American. Music is among the events highlighted, and this is designated American Music Month.

What about Americans in the field of music who had their beginning in Hope? There probably are others but here is a list of 16, and we are not including the fine musicians who still reside in our town.

A trip to Little Rock might include an evening when Tommy Scott is performing with his orchestra there. His father, the Rev. T. D. Scott (deceased), was the Methodist minister in Hope when Tommy was growing up. People who know him then say that the young man was a musical genius who could pick out melodies on the piano when he was only three years of age. Later, he became skilled at playing everything from hymns to jazz on the Methodist Church organ. He has been associated with many "name" orchestras, but he prefers one of his own in a city the size of Little Rock.

In the field of religious music Dr. J. T. Luck quickly comes to mind. An accomplished pianist and choral director, he is head of the music department at Ouachita Baptist College. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luck. A man who grew up in Hope about the same time as Luck and who also played the piano quite well is Tommy Kinser. He was well known in Arkansas for his championship band at Stuttgart, and he is now directing a band in Texas. His mother is Mrs. Tom Kinser. Hilburn Graves, who was directing a band on the West Coast the last anyone here heard, was a splendid performer on many instruments and did musical arranging as well.

Katy Lester has done well in various musical fields, but she was born at Patmos with Revoyda Frierson as her name. She finished Yerger High School at the age of 15 and got her start singing at "The Purple Onion" in San Francisco. She has appeared on Groucho Marx's "You Bet Your Life," and has made recordings that include "Love Letters," "I'm in the Mood for Love," and an album. This past summer she was in a movie at the Saenger, "Just For Fun." She has made personal appearances in London and Chicago, and at the present time is appearing in a Broadway production, "Cabin in the Sky."

In the country and western field of music Ruby Blevins was well-known some years ago. Born in Hope, she began her musical studies in the classical vein with the violin. She soon found more enjoyment in a "fiddle" and the type of music associated with one, and fans in such cities as Chicago apparently preferred her "country music, too. Her father, Gus Blevins, was employed by the local post office. Today she is Mrs. Paul Rose, lives in California, and has two daughters and several grandchildren.

A member of the official Concert Band of the U.S. Army, Delmer Weliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weliver is a good representative of Hope in the present period of young musicians.

In the field of band music Jack White son of Mrs. C. G. Tittle, has achieved recognition for his junior high school band in Monroe, La. Volmer Dean Boyd is teaching voice in a junior high in Eureka, Calif., while studying for his master's degree in music at a nearby college, and his brother, Ronald Wayne Boyd, takes part in choral work while studying at Centenary College in Shreveport.

Some families seem to have a corner on the talent market. The Herefords were such a brother and sister, Fletcher Hereford has been in a number of well-known orchestras and has organized and directed several.

At the present time he is in Dallas with his own orchestra. Johnnie Hereford Lambert, church organist, concert performer (both as a piano soloist and accompanist), radio and TV performer, and teacher, now lives in New York City.

The Marshalls and music are synonymous in our community. Mrs. Helen Ruffin Marshall was Associate Professor of Music for many years at Centenary College in Shreveport and helped organize the Shreveport Opera Association. Under her guidance the opera reached new heights in that Louisiana city. She is an honorary member of the Friday Music Club. Her son, George Ruffin Marshall, teaches music at McNeese College in Lake Charles and directs the Lake Charles Symphony Orchestra.

A daughter, Margaret Marshall Kitto lives in St. Louis, is organist at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, and has private music pupils. Another daughter, Mary Belle Marshall Sard, makes her home in Urbana, Ill., has appeared with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, and has private piano pupils. This spring she is going to Lake Charles to appear with her brother's symphony orchestra.

Then, watch for an announcement about Mrs. (Robert) Sard's appearance in a concert in Hope. The Friday Music Club has been fortunate enough to obtain her for a concert here on Friday, April 10. More details will be forthcoming as the time draws nearer.

Late Senator Linked to Baker Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators released testimony today that a defense firm official borrowed $175,000 to buy stock in a Tulsa bank on the recommendation of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., and had an oral agreement to sell half of it to Bobby Baker.

The testimony was given by Fred B. Black Jr., high-salaried Washington representative of the North American Aviation Corp. He said Kerr told him that, except for his wife and his sons, he "never loved a man so much as he did Bobby Baker."

Baker resigned under fire last Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority. The Senate Rules Committee is investigating whether he engaged in outside business dealings that conflicted with his official duties or involved other improprieties.

Black told the committee in about five hours of closed-door testimony last Monday that he borrowed the $175,000 from the Fidelity National Bank & Trust Co. of Oklahoma City after Kerr, from his Capitol office, introduced him by telephone to the bank's president.

Black said that with the $175,000, borrowed on March 20, 1962, he bought 6,400 shares of stock in the Farmers and Merchants State Bank in Tulsa.

He testified that he had an oral agreement with Baker that "he could purchase half of it at any time that he could come up with the money." But he said Baker never has been able to pay for any of it.

Black testified that Kerr told him the Tulsa bank was "in the throes of reorganization" and that purchase of the stock would be "a fine investment."

Russian Novelist Gets Criticism

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet novelist Alexei Yugov was criticized Thursday for writing a book containing kind words about the last czar and czarina.

The government newspaper Izvestia attacked him and said that up until now, "all literate people had an entirely different idea about the last Russian crown carriers."

Just Keep Your Foot on Floor

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — In an election year, says Prof. Paul Hunsinger, nothing is so important as a little knowledge of orisextractopody.

Hunsinger, who heads the speech department at the University of Denver, listed it among topics at the annual Rocky Mountain Speech and Communication Conference here today.

He explained orisextractopody is the art of keeping one's foot out of one's mouth—or getting it out once it's in.

Johnson And Mateos Have Conference

By FRANK CORMIER

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — President Johnson and his guest, President Adolfo Lopez Mateos of Mexico, breakfasted today to put the finishing touches on a statement of hands-across-the-border solidarity.

A post-breakfast joint communique on two days of talks by the two presidents was to be followed by a Lopez Mateos news conference.

The early morning meeting was the final business session scheduled by the two chief executives.

However, both men and their wives were to get together during the afternoon at Los Angeles for an hour-long fiesta of Mexican entertainment.

A spokesman for the Mexican leader, Justo Sierra, said the two-nation conference was marked by amity and cordiality.

The traveling White House, meantime, announced that Johnson would remain in Palm Springs an extra night. It was originally thought that he would leave Southern California this evening.

Topics covered by Johnson and Lopez Mateos included the Alliance for Progress, international trade, disarmament and the long-standing problem of too much salt in Colorado River water used to irrigate Mexico's Mexicali Valley.

Neither Justo Sierra nor White House press secretary Pierre Salinger mentioned what must have been a jarring background note: The arrest in New York of the Mexican ambassador to Bolivia as one of three accused of conspiracy to transport and receive illegal narcotics valued at a minimum of $13.5 million.

White House sources made light of the incident, saying the episode was three years old and did not figure in the two-nation talks.

Johnson and Lopez Mateos paid a 40-minute call Friday night on former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The American and Mexican presidents flew by helicopter to the 13th fairway of the fashionable Eldorado Country Club, landing at the front door of Eisenhower's winter home.

Eisenhower threw his arms around Lopez Mateos in the traditional Latin-American embrace and then, after a few warm words, shook Johnson's hand and said, "How have you been?"

Mrs. Eisenhower later took her guests on a tour of the house.

Baker Refuses To Testify Or Show Records

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators are reported to be checking into a possibly important development in the Bobby Baker case.

L. P. McLendon, special counsel for the Rules Committee inquiry, disclosed this to newsmen Friday without giving further details.

He said that until he receives a report on this phase of the investigation he will be unable to predict when the hearings into the former Senate aide's business dealings will end.

The committee has a full week of public hearings coming up—including another appearance by Baker.

There has been speculation that Baker's refusal on constitutional grounds to testify or present his records at a closed hearing Wednesday would stymie the committee's mission to learn whether Baker, other Senate employees or any senators had been involved in conflict of interest.

McLendon said that as far as he knew none of the remaining testimony involves any members of the Senate.

Baker, who resigned under fire Oct. 7 as secretary to the Senate Democratic majority, is to be the chief witness at Tuesday's public hearing. His secretary, former beauty queen Carole Tyler, takes the center of the stage the next day.

The committee released testimony Friday from Fred B. Black, Jr., Washington representative of the North American Aviation Corp., that injected the name of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., into the investigation.

Black testified that in March 1962, he borrowed $175,000 to buy 6,400 shares of stock in a Tulsa, Okla., bank recommended by Kerr and that he had an oral agreement with Baker to sell him half of the stock.

He said that Kerr, sometimes called "the uncrowned king of the Senate" before his death on Jan. 1, 1963, suggested that he make half of the stock available to Baker.

Black said Kerr had told him that "outside of his sons, his wife, he never knew and never loved a man so much as he did Bobby Baker."

Black testified that he borrowed the $175,000 from the Fidelity National Bank & Trust Co. of Oklahoma City, known in Oklahoma as "Kerr's bank," after the senator, from his Capitol office, introduced him by telephone to the bank's president.

With the money, Black said, he bought 6,400 shares of stock in the Farmers and Merchants State Bank in Tulsa. He said Kerr told him it would be a fine investment and arranged for him to buy the stock through the bank rather than on the open market.

Black said that the stock since has gone up $6 or $7 a share but that Baker never has taken his share despite an agreement that "he could purchase half of it at any time he could come up with the money."

Mrs. Eisenhower later took her guests on a tour of the house.

Instructor Gives Life to Save Students

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. (AP) — Marine Corps officers say a veteran instructor gave his life to save trainees when one of the youths activated a hand grenade.

Killed Thursday was Staff Sgt. Bobby Gene Callison, 34, of nearby Vista. Two of the trainees were wounded.

Investigators said Callison's action undoubtedly saved several other marines from being killed. They gave this account: Pvt. James M. Cromer, 17, of Indianapolis, Ind., had pulled the pin from a powerful M26 grenade and was preparing to hurl it from the pit where he, Sgt. Callison and other trainees were working.

But Cromer accidentally dropped the detaining lever that is supposed to fall free only when the grenade is thrown. The youth then appeared to freeze.

Callison, noticing his plight, grabbed the grenade and hurled it out of the pit.

Would Step Up War on Poverty

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council drafted resolutions today calling on President Johnson to step up his war on poverty in general and on unemployment in particular.

Federal measures to reduce the nation's 4.6-million jobless total are "the key factor in the whole fight against poverty," said a spokesman for the council, which sets policy for AFL-CIO unions and their 13.5 million members.

"We are in favor of the idea of the war on poverty," the spokesman said, "and we want to see some action. It is not enough just to say this. There has got to be some legislative action."

He said demands the AFL-CIO will make on Johnson and Congress include:

1. An accelerated public works program "translated into immediate jobs."
2. An increase in the minimum wage, now $1.25 an hour, to $2 and expanding its coverage to millions of workers.
3. A shorter work week, with double pay to discourage overtime and spread employment.

Johnson already has proposed double pay for overtime in some industries and expanding minimum wage coverage but he has not acceded to labor demands to cut the work week to 35 hours. Labor considers this the essential measure to reduce unemployment.

Ruby Farce Continues at Dallas

By RELMAN MORIN
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Legal duelling over selection of a jury for Jack Ruby's murder trial goes into the third day today, intensified by new defense contentions that 12 impartial jurors cannot be found in Dallas.

Not a juror has been accepted from the first 16 persons questioned.

In the record is a dramatic plea by Melvin M. Belli, chief defense counsel for Ruby, to move the trial to some other city in Texas.

In urging Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown to grant his motion, Belli said:

"You can't find a city with finer men of integrity than in Dallas. They are men of family, men of God, men of the church. They are willing to do their civic duty."

But, he argued, "so much has happened here," that it is difficult for such men to do this civic duty conscientiously.

Brown overruled the motion. Ruby shot Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, two days after President John F. Kennedy was assassinated here. Oswald had been charged with murdering the president. Ruby is charged with murder with malice and the state will demand the death penalty.

Belli's renewed plea for a change of venue came during questioning of Hugh O'Neal, a dancer, an accountant.

Dancer said he had formed an

Parents Don't Want Small Pox Shots

DEWITT, Ark. (AP)—Parents of pupils in the DeWitt School District have threatened court action to keep their children in class without smallpox vaccinations.

If they file suit, it will be the second litigation in Arkansas recently over a state law requiring the vaccinations for attendance at the public schools.

The state Supreme Court now has under consideration testimony and briefs in a suit by the Archie Cudes of Mena to prevent loss of their children to the state Welfare Department.

The Cudes maintain vaccinations are against their religion in which the order to give up beliefs and protest the manner their children was given.

The Welfare Department filed a brief Tuesday saying the Cudes religious beliefs did not give them the right to deprive their children of an education.

The DeWitt group is composed of members of the General Assembly of the Church of the First Born near DeWitt, School Supt. Samuel M. King said Tuesday.

King said when the group protested a resolution passed last week by the board requiring vaccinations, he told them they had three courses of action:

1. Have the children vaccinated, take them out of school, or file suit to enjoin the school, or file from enforcing the law.

King said the board has set March 10 as the deadline for proof of vaccination. If not submitted, he said, the children will be suspended.

He said Tom Gentry, Little Rock attorney who represents the church group, and his clients agreed to the date.

Gentry said at Little Rock whether a suit will be filed, "depends on the circumstances."

King said if the parents withdrew the children, he would turn their names over to authorities as violators of the state's compulsory attendance law.

Retired Farmer Dies in Fire

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP)—Edward Surrel, 50, a retired farmer, died in a fire that destroyed his home Wednesday night.

Sheriff John H. Biggs said cause of the fire was not learned.

Mrs. Surrel and a niece and nephew who lived with the Surrels had gone to a neighbor's house at the time of the fire, Biggs said.

The house was eight miles south of Lake Village.

opinion about Ruby's guilt or innocence after seeing a rerun of the televised scene of the shooting.

"I would try to lay it aside if I am selected as a juror," he said, "but as to what effect my subconscious feelings would have, I just can't say."

Belli shook hands with Dancer and said, "I want to thank you."

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade, asked whether he believes the defense is trying to obtain a jury in Dallas, replied, "No, I do not."

He told reporters the defense lawyers think Judge Brown will transfer the case from Dallas "if they carry out the trial long enough."

'You Go First, Age Before Beauty' Is a Very Tiring Remark for the Middle Aged

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks of a middle-aged man gets tired of hearing:
"You go first. Age before beauty."

"Take it easy going up these stairs. Remember, you're not as young as you used to be."
"Oh, Joe is a stickler for doing things the old way. After he leaves the office, go ahead and do it any way you want to. By tomorrow he will have forgotten all about it."

"Don't forget your muffler, dear. I may turn cold."
"No Joe, I don't think you should have any dessert. You know what the doctor told you fat could do to you at your age?"

"Mr. Fogey, I hear so much kidding these days about President McKinley's times. What was McKinley really like—and did you ever talk to him?"
"Who was your last pinup girl, Joe—Mary Pickford?"
"He's learning his ABC's all over again, but this time they stand for aspirin, bicarbonate of soda and cholesterol."

"Why give the promotion to him? At his age he isn't likely to leave the firm."

"I'm sure it's nothing serious Ethel. But you know how stubborn Joe is. He insisted on putting in the tomato plants again this year, and all of a sudden he couldn't straighten up."

"I don't care if your feet are killing you. This is a lovely party, and we're not going home until I am darn good and ready. So quit yawning, and for heaven's sake try and look alive."

"Here's a funny joke in the newspaper, dear. It says middle age is that time of life when it takes a man longer to clear his throat in the morning than it does to shave."

"Quit your grumbling. You ought to be glad that Janice wants us to come over and baby-sit our grandchildren now and then."

"Boy, how I envy you, you've got it made. All you have to do is keep your nose clean for a few more years, and then you can start collecting it back from Uncle Sam."

"It's all in the mind, Joe. If you approach them with the right attitude, the middle years can be the most rewarding period of life."

We turned out of the alley and walked briskly down the main street of Nogales. "And the woman?" I asked.

"Two people, dark and light as she wishes, a very clever woman. Also a friend of my sister's cousin."

"You have seen them together?"

"Many times."
"Why did you come after me?"
—I paused and then remember — "Jorge?"

He glanced at me, grinning. "First, you give me a dollar when she says two-bits. Second, you call me 'brother.' Third, when she called me a tramp and tells the story of a fool, you say you do not like the fool. You are my kind of guy."

I wanted to be sick but we kept on walking.
We had cleared the lights of the main street of town and were walking down into the dark, down into Mexico.

"On the outside of town I have a cousin, Pablo, like you call me," he grinned. "Pablo is the night man on the Last Chance Gas. There are many tourists for Guaymas and Mazatlan."

"But I do not want to go to Guaymas or Mazatlan."
"This is not the thing," Jorge explained earnestly. "At the Last Chance Gas there is a tow truck. It is a very good way to get you to the border."

I stumbled along through the dark, trying to keep up with the boy, trying to keep up with my life, with anything but the future. "You've had an education," I guessed.

"I try to go to school although it is not regular. I listen to those who talk Ingles, and also to any who will talk business. Also, Padre Anselmo helps me with the books I steal."

I held to his shoulder, trying to keep my balance along the edge of a rough and rocky road. "The books you steal?"

"The penance is very grave. And each time, I promise. Only, it is so hard to learn, to have enough to learn from. This is a thing which Padre Anselmo also understands."

I said to Jorge, suddenly, "You are doing a big thing for me, and yet it is not enough. My life saved by itself is nothing, less than nothing."

"I do not understand," Jorge said. "Please, will you explain very carefully?"

Sitting on a rock at the side of the road, within sight of his cousin's Last Chance Gas, I tried to explain. I told him about the ride with the redhead, my trial and the year in prison. I told him about the Jinx and how I had saved his life, and also about the tip I had been given. I told him about the disappearance of Jimmy Turner in Scottsville, about the death of Covalt, of Charlton, of Solly and the fat man. I told him about the try on me, how I had been lucky and the Rover Boys had died instead. I tried to tell him about Maggie and Herbert. I tried to make it all point out how I had been built to be the fall guy, how my own true love had played the sucker-me to serve her own ends.

"Now they will be scared," he said finally.

"Why?" I demanded. "Regardless of how you look at it, dead or alive, I'm still it, the big patsy."

Jorge shook his head. "Still, they do not have all the goods." He held up a single finger.

"One, there is you. Alive, you can ask questions. Alive, you

Gary Moore Show Not Renewed

NEW YORK (AP) — Gary Moore, whose Tuesday night television variety show will not be renewed next season, says he's quitting his other two Columbia Broadcasting System shows and may not return to broadcasting.

Moore, after a 30-year career in radio and TV, announced Thursday he will resign as moderator of the TV show "I've Got a Secret" and give up his daytime radio show.

CBS recently had announced it was dropping the variety hour at the end of this season.

"I have a very active mind and I just couldn't face a broadcast future which requires only eight working hours a week," said Moore.

Whether he works or not, Moore, whose contract with CBS has 11 years to go, will be paid more than $100,000 annually.

Cubans Will Arrive Home During Day

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Twenty-nine Cubans, freed after 15 days in jail for illegal fishing in Florida waters, were expected to reach Havana today aboard four Cuban government trawlers, the Cuban Radio reported.

They left Key West Thursday after the four captains had paid fines of $500 each. Two Coast Guard cutters accompanied the Cubans half way on the 90-mile voyage.

The Cuban Radio said three of the vessels developed engine trouble and were taken in tow by the fourth.

One of two American fliers who reached Cuba through mishap was back in Miami. The other has been taken to a Havana hotel and is resting there, the State Department reported in Washington.

The flier who has returned, Richard Wright, 23, was forced at gunpoint by two Cubans to fly to Havana Tuesday. He said he was questioned by security officers before he was cleared for departure.

The other airman, Trevor Bruce Burns of Syracuse, N.Y., was flying from Montego Bay, Jamaica, to Grand Cayman Island, another British Caribbean possession, Feb. 16, when his plane ran out of gas.

The State Department said Burns was forced down at Cayo Diego, a key off southern Cuba. Two days later, Cuban soldiers landed there and took him to Cienfuegos on the Cuban mainland.

Burns was slightly injured, and received medical attention from the Cubans, reports from Havana added.

State Department officials said the Swiss, who represent U.S. interests in Cuba, presumably are trying to arrange passage home for Burns.

Former Manager of AP Dies

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—William J. McCambridge, former assistant general manager of The Associated Press, died today at St. Joseph Hospital. He was 75.

McCambridge had been ill several months with a heart condition.

McCambridge was placed in charge of all communications of The AP in 1929 and was named assistant general manager in 1936. He was given charge of Latin-American news for The AP in 1937.

From 1941 to 1947 McCambridge served as general manager of Press Association, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Associated Press which then handled radio activities.

McCambridge retired from AP in 1947 after 44 years service. That same year he became president and chairman of the board of Press Wireless which transmits and receives communications for newspapers, news services, magazines and broadcasting stations throughout the world. He retired from Press Wireless in 1962 and later moved to Memphis.

ing March 7.

Spicer, who has fought in the party with Rockefeller since last summer, said he will not attend.

The party secretary, Mrs. Martha Townsend of Little Rock, said she believed a legal meeting had been called.

Rockefeller said he was not an attorney and could not comment.

Marion Burton, counsel to the national committee, said he believed the call was legal and Rockefeller's group plans no further action.

The meeting reportedly sets the stage for a showdown between Spicer and Rockefeller factions of the GOP.

Spicer has issued a call for a March 21 meeting which sets a specific agenda of party business, such as getting election filing fees, determining the number of delegates to the state convention, etc.

DOROTHY DIX

WHY CAN'T WIFE HAVE SECOND CHILD?
By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: My husband and I have one child, a lovely 8-year-old girl, but ever since Ruthie was born, I just haven't been able to conceive again. My doctor can't find anything wrong with either my husband or me, and last week he told me my infertility might be psychosomatic, and he'd like me to consult a psychiatrist.

Dr. Brothers, I just can't tell you how shocked and ashamed I feel. I haven't even told my husband for fear of what he'd think of me. The thing is, I've always been considered a strong and stable woman. No one ever accused me of being neurotic. Why on earth should my doctor think I need a psychiatrist for this? Do you think my doctor might have some funny ideas about me because I might have said some peculiar things when I was under the influence of anesthesia having Ruthie? —R.M.

Dear R.M.: Not at all. Between the effect of the labor itself, and the effect of certain drugs which are used to help it along, many women do get a little uninhibited when they're giving birth. Delivery room personnel, however, are used to this, and never pay it any mind. I'm sure your doctor was much too busy bringing your daughter into the world to have been taking mental notes about what her mama was saying.

In fact, the only person I can think of who's ever paid any attention to the lyrics of labor is young anthropologist who classified phrases uttered by women in labor. She found there was a definite tie - in between things said and the sociological backgrounds of the women who said them. For some subtle, cultural reason, women of Spanish and Italian parentage are likely to express anger at their husbands, and insist that this is their last child. Negro women frequently pray. Irish women appeal to their mothers to come, and relieve the pain. But Jewish women are more likely to call for their fathers.

Now, it's possible that fear of the humiliation of another labor has prevented you from conceiving again. The chances are that this is not a powerful enough reason. Dr. Irving Fisher of New York has made a thorough investigation of the phenomenon of one - child sterility, as it's called.

He found that most women who are unable to conceive a second child are terribly in love with their husbands, and uncertain that the feeling is completely mutual. They want to have one child to cement the marriage, but they are afraid that with a greater number the husband might not have enough love to go around, or that they might not have enough time to work at pleasing the husband as much as they'd like.

At this point, you are undoubtedly wondering how in the world psychology can influence the conception of a baby. According to Dr. Herbert Marback, an obstetrics professor at the University of Pennsylvania, many cases of sterility are just as psychosomatic as ulcers. The body mechanisms involved are completely unconscious, and work in a number of ways. Some of Dr. Marback's patients appear to have suffered from tubal spasms which obstructed the passage of the ovum to the uterus. Others stopped ovulating altogether. A third group develops a type of secretion which prevents the sperm from surviving long enough to achieve fertilization.

But luckily, psychotherapy has proved a very effective cure in many cases of sterility. Your doctor was in no way insulting you, or implying that you're queer or crazy when he suggested that you see a psychiatrist. Some authorities figure that from one-third to one-half of our adult population suffers from some psychosomatic complaint or another. So, your gynecologist is hardly likely to regard yours as a strong or shameful condition. All his recommendations indicates is that he keeps up to date, and that he has the best interests of his patients at heart.

Slingshot Sam Admits His Feet Hurt

By BEN FUNK

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) - Slammmin' Sammy Snead is 51 years old and sometimes his feet hurt, but the old West Virginia mountaineer still has lots of good golf rounds left.

Thursday his putter "didn't act kindly" at times. But Snead proved that advancing age hadn't taken too much of a toll when he knocked five strokes off par for a 67 and the first-round lead in the $30,000 PGA Seniors Tournament for the teacher trophy.

Snead is one of the newest competitors in this tournament for golfers past the golden age. He was expected to show a few things to the old-time stars whose exploits made the headlines two, three, even four decades ago.

But the former champion of the PGA, the Meers and the British Open was looking back at some people who were breathing down his neck at the finish.

Just one stroke behind were 55-year-old Leland Gibson of Kansas City, Mo., and 60-year-old John Moyer of Orwigburg, Pa., with scores of 68, four under par for the new PGA National Golf Club layout.

They never made the Hall of Fame, like Snead and some others in the tournament, but they showed Sam that the pressure doesn't ease up in golf as time goes by.

Thirteen of the old-timers broke par and 27 shot par or better.

Fellow Club Owners Take On Findley

BOSTON (AP)—Fellow club owners confronted Athletics' boss Charles O. Finley Friday in an American League summit meeting designed to settle his stalemate with Kansas City officials over a Municipal Stadium lease or else.

League President Joe Cronin already has made it plain the alternative may be the expulsion of Finley.

The principals, armed with legal advisers, weren't talking much prior to the closed door session.

But a source close to Louis Nizer, Finley's lawyer, revealed Nizer has advised Finley to:

1. Go ahead and sign a three-year lease under league pressure, then,

2. Enter a law suit against the league for forcing him into a lease he did not wish.

Cronin ordered the meeting after two deadlines set for Finley came and went without the lease impasse being resolved.

The Finley camp is firmly convinced the league has no grounds to disenfranchise him. Cronin admits "Finley has threatened litigation from the start" if such a move is made.

Earlier this week, however, Cronin also told a Senate subcommittee the league has power to do so. When he ordered this meeting, Cronin advised that if a settlement was not made, the league is prepared to hold another meeting which will "consider the termination of membership in the league of Charles O. Finley and Co., Inc."

Kansas City officials, represented by Mayor Ilius Davis and City Counsel Harbert Hoffman, sat in on the meeting at Cronin's invitation. They had maintained the Municipal Stadium lease must be for four years. Finley has not waived from his two-years-or-nothing stand.

Just before the extension deadline ran out last Saturday midnight, there was word the city was willing to compromise with a three-year lease, but Finley denied a concrete offer had been made.

Finley said Thursday night he welcomed the chance of presenting the issue before his fellow executives. The indications are he might also welcome an opportunity to take his case before the courts and the U.S. Senate.

Homeless in Azores in the Thousands

ANGRA DO HEROISMO, Terceira, Azores (AP) - Tents, medicine and food were rushed to homeless thousands on Sao Jorge today after a wave of earthquakes crumbled the island's main town to rubble.

An emergency evacuation that brought more than 1,000 Sao Jorge islanders to nearby Terceira was stopped Wednesday when the six-day series of quakes subsided. The other 19,000 inhabitants chose to stay on the island.

The American freighter Steel Director joined nine British, Norwegian, Italian and Yugoslav ships in removing dazed refugees. Two landing craft from the U.S. Air Force Base at Lajes, on Terceira's eastern shore, brought the refugees from the larger ships to shore.

Most of the 1,600 buildings in the area of Velas, Sao Jorge's chief town, were reported destroyed.

"The news we have is that all is desolation and ruins in that once happy sector of the island" the district governor said.

Rosais Township also was reported heavily damaged.

Portugal, which rules the volcanic Azores chain 1,000 miles west of Lisbon, sent troops to Sao Jorge with relief supplies.

Antonio Loureiro, a refugee, said he lost count of the tremors, which began last Friday.

"There must have been over 1,000 of them," he reported.

Jose Miniz Madruga said he and many others got away with only the clothes they wore after the quakes wrecked their homes.

Many of the homeless assembled at Calheta, an east coast village, to await rescue.

There was speculation that the seismic shocks were the result of a volcano building up on the ocean floor. All of the nine Azores islands except Santa Maria are of volcanic origin.

Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California has submitted a $3.66-billion budget for the 1964-65 fiscal period along with an opinion that no new taxes are required. He said the prospect of a small surplus enabled him to recommend a $2.75-million income tax cut in the lowest brackets.

Republican Gov. William G. Scranton of Pennsylvania has a 1964-65 budget of $1.168 billion that proposes no new or increased taxes.

Democratic Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas says no new taxes are needed. Gov.

Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has promised there will be no tax increases in 1964. He presented a $2.92-billion budget last month and said he is counting on the federal tax cut to stimulate business. As a result of better business, he estimated, state revenues would rise seven per cent.

It calls for fellowship and social order without racial barriers.

John A. Burns of Hawaii, also a Democrat, says he does not plan to ask any tax hikes.

Loss and Gain

The older man is saying, "I have worked hard to make this farm pay. But I wonder if that is enough. What is ahead... how much loss and how much gain? He has asked this minister to explain it all. What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? Things do not satisfy. Man is a spiritual creature. He cannot be content with food and shelter. He was made for fellowship with God and his soul will always be hungry until he knows that he is a son of God and learns to walk with the Eternal Spirit. He must go forward with Christ. He must go to church and live in daily consciousness of the favor and blessing of his God. As he sharpens his tools to lose or gain, so must he sharpen his mind and his heart for God. Any business will pay when God is the senior partner.
